Elton Seton wins the Georgia Manufacturing Alliance Front Line Supervisor Award

MACON, GA. October 11, 2018 – KaMin LLC would like to congratulate Elton Seton for winning the 2018 Front Line Supervisor Award, presented by the Georgia Manufacturing Alliance at their annual conference this week. Elton was nominated for this prestigious award by KaMin Vice President of Operations Jason Maxwell, who had this to say about Elton: “Elton is very passionate about people and works well with others throughout our organization. He is a caring individual and an overall blessing to have in our company.”

Upon receiving this award, Elton shared the experience in his own words: “I heard a quote once that stuck with me. If you see a frog on a post, it did not get there itself. I am that frog. I have been blessed with an amazingly supportive family and have the opportunity to work with equally amazing individuals that I cannot thank enough. Thank you to the Georgia Manufacturing Alliance for this honor.”
